

The #FeministFridays series is a monthly discussion around feminism and development; the way the development community approaches gender equality; notions of power and accountability within our work; and an opportunity to hear directly from Global South feminists and gender equality advocates.

When?

Every first Friday of the month, from 8:45 to 10am.

Where?

At Women Thrive Alliance, 1875 Connecticut Avenue NW, Suite 405, Washington DC, 20009

"Feminist: a person who believes in the social, political, and economic equality of the sexes." — Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

Join us!

To attend #FeministFridays, please email Emily Bove at eabove@womenthrive.org

If you are an existing member and wish to invite a guest, please let us know in advance.

What?

Join us for breakfast (yes, there will be coffee!) and a discussion around an agreed theme/topic. #FeministFridays will be a safe space and the content of our discussions will not be published or shared beyond the group.

Each session will host one or two "discussion leaders" that have experience on the topic at hand.
